AI Discovery sessie

Let's outsmart the competition.

Program:

The session is interactive, with our AI specialist informing, inspiring and challenging participants. The duration is approximately 2 hours, with the following agenda: Introduction to AI: Overview of current and future capabilities of AI. Impact on Leadership and Organization: Discover how AI can transform leadership and impact organizational strategy.

For whom:

The session is designed for executives and managers who set the strategic direction of the organization and strive for long-term success. We focus on enriching their leadership skills and integrating AI into the organizational structure.

Want to keep your knowledge in the field of AI up to date? Then take a look at our AI Mastermind Program.

- Praktijkvoorbeelden: Toepassingen van AI voor het verbeteren van leiderschapskwaliteiten en het verkrijgen van concurrentievoordeel.
- Implementatie Strategie: Integreeren van AI in de leiderschaps- en organisatiestructuur.

After completion, you will know:

With this discovery session, we ensure that technological development (AI) is embedded by boards and management in their vision and strategy. This starts with an approachable introduction to what it can do and how it can be used for the organization, so that boards can translate it into their own strategy. From there, we can train specific teams and departments and translate the marketing strategy to the technological landscape that is needed, the data structure and the translation to optimizations and automations.

Practical information:

- Date: By arrangement
- Cost: On request
- Study load: one day
- Location: Flexible
